

STN CORPORATE STOCK REPURCHASE SOLUTION

SunGard Transaction Network (STN) Execution Services, an agency broker, can provide corporations with a fully automated solution for the execution and reporting of their stock repurchase programs. By using STN Execution Services, corporate treasurers can achieve straight through processing for their program all via a secure web site. Corporate clients can also ensure that their repurchase plan is being executed by traders who do not have proprietary objectives or conflicts of interest. In many cases, clients' cost per transaction for stock repurchase services will decrease when they use STN.

HIGH-TOUCH SERVICE

As an agency broker, client satisfaction is STN Execution Service's number one priority. We strive to provide best in class client service and direct accessibility, so our corporate clients can be confident that their orders are being executed with their specific objectives in mind. Through one of STN's dedicated trading consultants, corporate treasurers can begin by discussing their trading objectives, including the benchmark they would like to meet (VWAP, TWAP and others). They can continue by following trading activity through the web, and receive a complete report at the end of each day, as well as at the end of the repurchase period.

AUTOMATION EXPERTISE

By leveraging SunGard's innovative technology for straight-through processing and trade automation, we provide enhanced automation capabilities so treasurers can:

- Select one of five algorithmic trading strategies to ensure minimal market impact
- Enter initial trades via automated, secure web screen, if desired
- View executions throughout the day and adjust strategy in volatile markets
- Review activity summary report available throughout the repurchase period
- Review consolidated reports for plans that use multiple brokers or banks

VAST EXPERIENCE

STN Execution Services provides experienced, highly qualified professionals for all of your interactions. Our team is comprised of talented individuals with vast industry experience including:

- Former market makers and floor brokers
- Over a decade of institutional coverage experience
- Twenty plus years of hands-on trading experience

STN Execution Services can provide you with the one-on-one attention and the high quality service you deserve as a valued corporate client. For more information, please contact stn.marketing@sungard.com